

Application for Video (DVD) Jurying

In order to recoup a portion of the costs associated with jurying, Tamarack now requires a fee for submissions. Effective September 1, 2010 there will a charge of $30.00 dollars to submit your video for jurying.

VIDEOS (DVDs) SENT IN FOR REVIEW WILL NOT BE RETURNED

Tamarack no longer accepts VHS recordings for jurying. Submissions must be a complete and finished product shelf ready.

If accepted, the video(s) will be eligible to be sold at Tamarack. A preliminary test order is typical. Reorders may follow based on successful sales.

Videos are reviewed by a professional who is involved in production.

Criteria for Music Jurying

Tamarack is constantly seeking materials pursuant to our mission of providing opportunities for West Virginia videographers. All submissions must meet the following criteria: Videos must pertain to West Virginia.

All materials must be available for purchase without minimum requirements. It is your responsibility to provide and update information pertaining to the distributor or agent. Accepted videos (DVDs) should be currently available for purchase. For out-of-print videos (DVDs), significant stock should be available for purchase and be in excellent condition.

Physical Criteria

Note: Jurors will review content, production and printing quality of materials.

Tamarack reserves the right to choose videos that are appropriate and marketable. Videos (DVDs) that are accepted by the juror may not be purchased by Tamarack. Purchasing is at the buyer's discretion. Videos with limited appeal and/or specialized content may be placed on an "order only" list or purchased at the buyer's discretion.

Video Criteria

Cover sleeve should be pleasing to the eye and appropriate for subject matter.
The back cover sleeve should contain description of content, length, format, etc.
Videos should be of high quality and professional production.
Videos (DVD) must be in an appropriate case or an ecology minded card board case.
Tamarack does not accept videos in plain paper or plastic CD envelopes.

Pricing

Expect pricing to be reflective of music store margins.
